A river of sake will be flowing through Shiro of Japan, one of Long Island's veteran Japanese eateries. On Wednesday, Shiro hosts an evening of free sake sampling from 18 producers, plus appetizers. The tasting is 5:30 to 7 p.m. at the restaurant in Carle Place, 401 Old Country Rd.; 516-997-4770.

Drumming up business, Japanese-style

Is it just me or does it seem to you that restaurants, these days, are getting ever more creative (and perhaps far-out) with special events?

On Wednesday, Sept. 24, at 6 p.m., Shiro of Japan in Carle Place will host Cobu, a rhythm and performance arts ensemble whose act includes rhythmic drumming and tap dance. Group founder Yako Miyamoto is currently a member of the off-Broadway show "Stomp."

The restaurant's regular menu will be served and there won't be a fee for the performance, so all you'll need is a reservation. And the yen for some rhythm with your raw fish.
